Learn Mbira at The White House:

Small-group intensives now available across six days or two weekends

- Group and 1:1 lessons
- Rooms, camping, and day-visitor options available
- Home-cooked vegetarian meals
- Beautiful countryside excursions
- Instruments, video summary, and follow-up study materials included

Join new friends on a journey deep into the fascinating world of mbira improvisation. Step-by-step learning alternates between voice, left hand, and right hand - layering together increasing complexity in your playing. Progress at your own pace with mixed-ability challenges at every stage, and leave with beautiful songs and endless creative possibilities in your hands.

Andy's unique methodology provides an excellent bridge between the Western mind and this ancient and beautiful music.

Djulz - Australia

Thank you, Andy. A wonderful host, great pancakes, and beautiful walks - the countryside is amazing!

Much more than my expectations. We learned together and revealed great magics in the fractal structures of mbira songs. I learned how to improvise, which is a game-changer for me. Thank you for an unforgettable week.

Ohad - Israel

My favourite thing was the pacing: time for playing, walks, playing on walks - with good food in between, and lovely people.
